Call for Papers NAAHoLS at LSA

The 2014 NAAHoLS meeting will again be held in conjunction with the Linguistic Society of America, the American Dialect Society, the Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas, and the Society for Pidgin and Creole Linguistics.

The annual meeting will take place in Minneapolis, Minnesota from 2-5 January 2014. Further details about the meeting will be provided in the next newsletter (Summer 2013), and information will also be available on-line at <naahols.org>.

As in the past, we invite papers relating to any aspect of the history of the language sciences. All presenters must be members of the association (contact the NAAHoLS Secretary for details). Papers will be 20 minutes, with 10 minutes for discussion. Abstracts should be submitted as file attachments (MS Word). The length of the abstract should not exceed 500 words – upon acceptance, a shorter (100 word) abstract will also be requested for the meeting handbook. The deadline for abstracts is 1 September 2013.

Abstracts should be sent to: David Boe,
Department of English, Northern Michigan University,
Marquette, MI 49855; (906) 227-2677; dboe@nmu.edu

Upcoming Conferences

19th International Congress of Linguists (ICL)

Geneva, Switzerland (22-27 July 2013)

The International Congress of Linguists (ICL) takes place every five years, under the governance of the International Permanent Committee of Linguists (CIPL). The last congress took place in Seoul, in 2008. The Société Suisse de Linguistique (SSL) submitted a proposal for the organization of the 19th congress, in 2013, in Ferdinand de Saussure's city, one century after his death. Geneva was chosen for the venue, and the Congress will take place there, from July 22nd to July 27th.

The general architecture of the scientific program of the Congress includes:

- 8 plenary sessions, 3 poster sessions, and 31 workshops.
- 10 sections, each animated by a section organizer: Each section is constituted by one of the sub-disciplines of linguistics (including the history of the language sciences: "Saussure and his legacy," organized by Frederick J. Newmeyer);

24th International Colloquium of the SGdS

Potsdam, Germany (22-24 August 2013)

The International Colloquium of the "Studienkreis 'Geschichte der Sprachwissenschaft'" (SGdS) will take place at the University of Potsdam from August 22nd to August 24th 2013 under the following theme: Metalinguistic Reflection and Discontinuity: Turning Points and Times of Crisis and Upheaval.

The earlier call for papers (due 15 January) welcomed contributions that dealt with specific aspects of the relationship between metalinguistic reflection and discontinuity from antiquity to contemporary history. The papers will be presented in German or English, as well as in French, Spanish, or Italian. Notification of acceptance was to be sent to the authors by the end of January 2013. The conference fee will be 70 euros.

13th International Conference on the History of Language Sciences
Vila Real, Portugal (25-29 August 2014)

The 13th International Conference on the History of Language Sciences (ICHoLS XIII) will be held at the Centro de Estudos em Letras (CEL) of the Universidade de Trás-os-Montes e Alto Douro (UTAD), in Vila Real, Portugal, during 25-29 August 2014.

ICHoLS conferences have taken place every three years since 1978. Previous venues have been Ottawa (1978), Lille (1982), Princeton (1984), Trier (1987), Galway (1990), Washington (1993), Oxford (1996), Fontenay-St. Cloud (1999), São Paulo-Campinas (2002), Urbana-Champaign (2005), Potsdam (2008), and Saint Petersburg (2011).

FIRST CALL FOR PAPERS

Papers relating to any aspect of the history of language sciences are invited, focusing on diverse topic areas ranging from antiquity to the contemporary history of linguistics and from individual case studies to methodological considerations.

The organizers ask that proposals for papers be made in the form of abstracts of 400 words, including a few pertinent references, in an anonymous Word doc or rtf file accompanying the email communication and addressed to: ichols-xiii@utad.pt

The official languages will be English, French, German, Portuguese, and Spanish.

The deadline for receipt of abstracts is July 15th, 2013. An international panel of referees will select the papers to be presented at the conference. Final selection will be made by September 2013; notification of acceptance will be sent before December 1st, 2013.

For further information please contact the local members of the executive board by using the above email address.
