Call for Papers
NAAHoLS @ LSA

The 2019 NAAHoLS meeting will again be held in conjunction with the Linguistic Society of America, the American Dialect Society, the American Name Society, the Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas, the Society for Computation in Linguistics, and the Society for Pidgin and Creole Linguistics.

The annual meeting will take place in New York City (Sheraton Times Square) from 3-6 January 2019. Further details about the meeting will be provided in a forthcoming NAAHoLS newsletter (Summer 2018), and information is also available on-line at <naahols.org>.

As in the past, we invite papers relating to any aspect of the history of the language sciences. All presenters must be members of the association (contact the NAAHoLS Secretary for details). Papers will be 20 minutes, with 10 minutes for discussion. Abstracts should be submitted as file attachments (MS Word). The length of the abstract should not exceed 500 words – upon acceptance, a shorter (100 word) abstract will also be requested for the LSA meeting handbook. The deadline for abstracts is 1 September 2018.

Abstracts should be sent to: David Boe, Department of English, Northern Michigan University, Marquette, MI 49855; (906) 227-2677; dboe@nmu.edu

Upcoming Conferences

The History of Language Learning and Teaching: Between the Eurocentric Model, Missionary Linguistics and Colonial Linguistics

Université Sorbonne Nouvelle, Paris, France (8-9 June 2018)

The title of the conference, to be held on June 8th and 9th at the Université Sorbonne Nouvelle, is “The History of Language Learning and Teaching: Between the Eurocentric Model, Missionary Linguistics and Colonial Linguistics.” The topics of the conference include language teaching; didactics of language; history of didactics; didactics and colonialism; missionary linguistics, colonial context, and its impact on language teaching and learning; transmission of pedagogical and didactic models; and epistemology and pedagogical practices.

This conference will provide an opportunity to analyze the dissemination and appropriation of teaching and learning methods from the time of the great explorations in Asia, the Americas, Africa and Oceania to the colonial and neo-colonial era. Invited Keynote Speakers include: Joseph Errington (Yale University), Valérie Spaëth (Université Sorbonne Nouvelle, Paris 3), and Otto Zwartjes (Universiteit van Amsterdam, Université Diderot Paris 7). The preliminary program will be available after May 1st.

Announcements

NAAHoLS Past-President Margaret Thomas Appointed as LSA Archivist

From the LSA website: “The LSA is pleased to announce the appointment of Margaret Thomas (Boston College) as LSA Archivist, for an initial term of three years. Dr. Thomas succeeds Brian Joseph (Ohio State University), who was recently elected Vice President of the LSA… In recent years, the LSA Archivist has been instrumental in the launching of “This (time) in Linguistics History,” a new feature published on a periodic basis via the LSA website. We invite LSA members to submit their ideas and contributions for future history features. The trigger event for this periodic feature could be an important day, week, month or year in the history of the LSA and/or the field of Linguistics.”
